Inspiration

I am deeply passionate about community service and I am always looking for new ways to give back to my community. I feel this Council is the perfect platform to help make a tangible difference.

Fun Fact

I love singing and playing the guitar.

What do you hope to achieve on the Council?

I hope to take on an active leadership role in helping allocate funds to well deserving organizations within the community. I look forward to working together with Council members to help these organizations reach their goals.

What accomplishment are you most proud of to date?

When I received the B.C. Community Achievement Award from the Governor General and Premier of B.C. As one of the youngest recipients of this award, it was an exceptionally humbling and memorable experience.

Bio

Suneet Maan is a graduate of the University of British Columbia (UBC) Bachelor of Psychology program, and is currently enrolled in the UBC Law program. Suneet is a deeply passionate, engaged member of the community. Her profound desire to hone her leadership skills is evident in the long list of organizations that she has devoted her time to.

From representing British Columbia at the Miss Teen Canada International Pageant, to her role as a program facilitator for the YWCA's That's Just Me program, to her curatorial role in planning and launching an art exhibit aimed at empowering and inspiring young South Asian women, Suneet has focused her community work on motivating and mentoring youth. Her drive is powered by the understanding that the future of any community is dependent on the engagement and success of its young people.

Suneet's experience in grant writing and desire to become a participant in community grant allocation decisions, along with her relentless passion and energy has served her well during her first years on the Council. She looks forward to representing the Council as Chair in 2016.
